Thank you for participating in NanoDays!

We ask that partners hosting NanoDays events report back to the Network about your experiences through this online survey. There are two sections in this survey:

- A required report section, with questions about your NanoDays 2014 event to help us understand the kinds of events our partners host and how NanoDays materials are used. We also use this information in awarding future NanoDays kits.
- An optional information-gathering section, with questions to help us improve future NanoDays kits and other NISE Net efforts and resources. We may use this information for future evaluations to improve the work of the NISE Network.

The reporting deadline for NanoDays is May 1. Once you complete the report (on time!), your name will be entered into a drawing for educational materials to use with your visitors. Two drawings will be made, and winners will be notified in late May.

Important Information About Filling Out the Report:

The report takes approximately 20 minutes to complete. Please note that it is NOT possible to save your work in the SurveyGizmo online form and return for additional edits. Reports left idle for too long will go blank when you progress to the next screen. Please plan to complete the online report in one session. You may want to write your responses in a Word doc, save, and then cut and paste that information into this report; you may download in Word Document format here or download PDF format here.

If you have any questions about this survey, please contact KC Miller at kcmiller@smm.org.

Part 1: NanoDays Report - page 2

This is the required NanoDays report, with questions about your NanoDays 2014 event to help us understand the kinds of events that our partners host and how NanoDays materials are used. We use this information in awarding future NanoDays kits.

If you held multiple NanoDays events this year, please include information on all of them. You don't need to fill out a report if you collaborated on another organization's event and they are filling out a report.

Part 2: Feedback - page 6

Part 2: Feedback

Your feedback helps us improve NanoDays and plan future NISE Net efforts and resources. Information from past NanoDays reports and evaluation has led to improvements to the kits and the types of additional resources that the NISE Net provides.

For these last questions, your response will not in any way affect your kit eligibility next year. You may skip these questions or end the survey at any time by hitting the submit button at the bottom of the next page.

If you had any problems with the kit or issues you'd like us to address directly, please email nanodays@nisenet.org.

Thank you for taking the time to answer these questions.

The NISE Network is interested in learning more about what partners are doing with NanoDays kit materials throughout the year. The following set of questions ask you to reflect on how your institution used kit materials outside of NanoDays events over the past year.

18. Prior NanoDays kits:

Has your organization received any physical NanoDays kits prior to the 2014 kit?

Yes

Thank You!

Thank you for taking the time to answer these questions! Your feedback is important to us.

Your 2014 NanoDays report is now complete. You should receive an automated email from KC Miller of the Science Museum of Minnesota (kcmiller@smm.org) with a PDF of your completed report attached; you may need to check your email spam filter for the automated email.

As a special thank you for filling out the report by May 1st, your name will be entered into a drawing for educational materials to use with your visitors. Two drawings will be made, and winners will be notified in late May.

If you have any questions about this report, please contact KC Miller at kcmiller@smm.org
