

FRANKENSTEIN<sup>200</sup>

Frankenstein200 is a national project led by Arizona State University, which uses Mary Shelley's classic tale to explore science, technology, and responsible innovation.

Learn more at Frankenstein200.org

In the interactive, online L.I.F.E. game, you'll act as lab assistant to a modern-day Dr. Frankenstein. You'll perform experiments, explore hidden areas of science, and assist a pair of young researchers to unravel the mystery of what makes us human.

Learn more and begin your experience today at Frankenstein.life

This project was supported by the National Science Foundation
under Grant Number 1516684.